Part C. IMPORTANT! DELINQUENT SECURED DEBT

List any SECURED debt for which you are not current (Examples include homes, land, vehicles, etc.) below. List the item(s), how far behind you are, monthly payment, total due.

If property is owned by more than one person it is owned JOINTLY. Most often, if it is owned jointly, it is owned jointly with a spouse. On the worksheet you must put “J” if owned jointly WITH YOUR SPOUSE, “H” if the husband owns it and NOT the wife, and “W” if the wife owns it and NOT the husband. If it is owned jointly with someone who IS NOT a spouse, then please explain in the margin.

*** You WILL be listing this property later in this document.

Type of Property	Months Delinquent	Owned by: (S)ingle, (H)usband, (W)ife (M)arried, if purchased while married, (J)oint but not purchased during marriage	Monthly Payment	Amount Behind	Do you want to keep this property?

Section 2 - Property - Part A. Real Estate (Schedule A)

List ALL real estate (EVERYTHING!) which you own or are a Joint owner of, even if you still owe money on the property. If property is owned by more than one person it is owned JOINTLY. Most often, if it is owned jointly, it is owned jointly with a spouse. On the worksheet, you must put "J" if owned jointly WITH YOUR SPOUSE but not purchased during the marriage. If purchased jointly DURING the marriage put an "M", "H" if the husband owns it and NOT the wife, and "W" if the wife owns it and NOT the husband. If it is owned jointly with someone who IS NOT a spouse, then place a "J" AND please explain in the margin.

The people whose name(s) are on the deed are the owners. The Trustee does NOT care if you bought it for your mother, brother, or friend. If your name is on the deed, YOU own it. If more than one person's name is on the deed, then you own it JOINTLY. If your name is not on the deed, then you do not own it.

Changing the ownership of property in some cases is fine, and in some cases may force you to wait a year or more to file bankruptcy. DO NOT try to pay off a debt, quit claim deed a property, or give away anything of value without consulting us first. If the deed was recorded within 90 days of filing, it is INCREDIBLY IMPORTANT to bring this to our attention both on this form and verbally! You could lose your home if you forget!

You MUST research if there are any judgments against you and, if applicable, your spouse in every county you have lived. Copies of all judgments MUST be sent to Sheree Cameron, Esq. of Cameron Law IMMEDIATELY. Include a copy of the judgment, the case number, and either the book and page number or the abstract number. This MUST be done BEFORE filing bankruptcy!

Address and description of property (example: 2 BR/2 BA Townhouse on 1 acre, located at 211 Peach Street, Charlotte, NC 28202) IMPORTANT: List all major renovations that were not paid entirely by loans. Please note if this applies.	Owned by: (S)ingle, (H)usband, (W)ife (M)arried, if purchased while married, (J)oint but not purchased during marriage Check the Deed!	Appraisal within the last two years or recent tax assessment.	Your % ownership, or $ amount, if you and spouse are not sole owners	List all mortgages, home equity loans, and liens with account numbers: What is the $ value (pay off) of the loan, lien, or mortgage?	Who issued the lien, loan, or mortgage? 1. Name of Institution 2. Address of Institution 3. Date of loan / purchase

Part B. Personal Property (Schedule B)

For each type of property listed below, indicate whether you own ANY property of that category, and, if you do, fill in the remaining information.

YOU MUST LIST EVERYTHING YOU OWN! You can think of the market value as the replacement value. For property that was acquired for personal or family use, replacement value is the price a retail merchant (store) would charge for property of that kind considering its age and condition. If property is owned by more than one person it is owned JOINTLY. Most often, if it is owned jointly, it is owned jointly with a spouse. On the worksheet you must put “J” if owned jointly WITH YOUR SPOUSE, “H” if the husband owns it and NOT the wife, and “W” if the wife owns it and NOT the husband. If it is owned jointly with someone who IS NOT a spouse, then please explain in the margin.

The people whose name(s) are on the title (if applicable) are the owners. The Trustee doesn't care if you bought it for your mother, brother, or friend. If your name is on the title, YOU own it. If more than one person's name is on the title, then you own it JOINTLY. If your name is not on the deed, then you do not own it.

If you undervalue a vehicle you will be caught, period. You will be caught at the worst time for you and your bankruptcy, and you may lose the vehicle, or at best be to keep it. If you give us the true value, we can plan and adjust things to your favor. If you give us the wrong value we can't. Your attorney DOES NOT investigate your claim; we assume you are telling the truth. The Trustee gets paid up to 10% of everything he finds, and he WILL NOT assume you are telling the truth, and HE WILL investigate the value of your home and vehicle.

In order to get the correct value of your vehicle you must PRINT OUT both the trade-in and AVERAGE RETAIL value from <http://www.NADA.com>.

IF YOU FEEL the value of any of these is too high, or your vehicle is not listed in these guides, or it is in poor condition, then you must get it appraised by an appraiser. Go to a car dealership or an auction house and have them, on their letterhead, write how much a similar vehicle would sell for in an auction. Please note the bold type. That is the EXACT wording you should use.

Value of property other than vehicles and real estate can be more difficult to determine, but you can be assured that the Trustee will look into anything of value. If it is of higher value, and the Trustee can make an argument that one person owns it and not the other, and if it worth his time, he will. He may do this by looking at checking accounts, credit cards, divorce decrees (and yes, the information you put down in your petition can be used against you in a divorce later), property owned before marriage, or any other way he deems fit. This doesn't happen often, but it can happen. Changing the ownership of property in some cases is fine, and in some cases may force you to wait a year or more to file bankruptcy. DO NOT try to pay off a debt, quit claim deed property, or give away anything of value WITHOUT CONSULTING US FIRST. Do not buy anything of value or have liens placed on any property WITHOUT CONSULTING US FIRST. If the title of a vehicle or other property was recorded within 90 days of filing, OR if you purchased an item within 90 days before filing, it is INCREDIBLY IMPORTANT to bring this to our attention both on this form and verbally! You could lose your vehicle or other property if you forget!

Section 3 - Debts

1) Highlight all the information you are not sure about or don't know as you fill in the blanks. Then go back through it to answer the highlighted items.

2) Make sure all company names are spelled out. (For example, instead of writing "HSB or a company name, write out the words "Home Secure Bank.")

3) Providing the complete names and INQUIRY / CUSTOMER SERVICE addresses for every debt you owe (as well as the company collecting for this debt [if applicable]) is extremely important. (An inquiry address is often different from the billing address. Credit Cards ALWAYS have an inquiry address listed besides the address to where you send payments. They often preface it like this: "For questions or inquiries, please mail to:"). Without this crucial information, the creditor cannot be properly notified by the court and the debt may not be eligible for discharge. In other words, you may have to pay the bill simply because you did not provide the court with an address to mail a notice, which then did not allow that company an opportunity to respond. In some instances, it may even be considered "fraud" because some people filing bankruptcy may want to intentionally disallow a creditor the right to file a Proof of Claim or Motion for Relief from Stay, which is against the law.

What if I don't know the address?

If you requested a credit report before filling out the Client Intake Forms, the credit report may or may not contain all the addresses you need. Often, credit reports will contain the address of the collection agency, and reference the original creditor's name only.

In this case, you will have to do a little work on your own to obtain the missing address. The best way to begin is to call the toll-free national information line at 1-800-555-1212 and see if a toll-free number is listed under the company's name. If not, you may have to look in your phone directory or do an online search of the yellow pages. Once you obtain the telephone number of the creditor, simply call them and ask for their mailing address.

Listing the address of the original creditor, as well as the collection agency, is also just as important. By doing this, all parties concerned with the debt are notified by the court and it will greatly aid in ceasing all collection phone calls you may be receiving.

Make sure the street address is readable and any abbreviations are spelled out.

4) Make sure the city, state, and ZIP are included for all addresses. If the zip code is not known, it can be obtained online: www.usps.com.

5) Make sure all the information to the left of the creditor's name is completely filled in. Every piece of this information is important in preparing a detailed bankruptcy petition for you. If you do not know the exact date you made a debt, or charged on the account, a "year" is sufficient. The "year" can also be within a 2- year time frame. Not providing dates or years will delay the processing of your petition as we must call or email you to obtain the information.

6) For the "last date charged on this account" line, do not provide the last date you received a statement.

We are only interested in the last date you actually made a purchase using this particular charge account.

7) If a debt is not on your petition, it is not in the bankruptcy. At best you will still have to pay it as if you did not file bankruptcy. At worst, your petition could be dismissed, you could be fined, or even (rarely) jailed.

8) If you remember a debt AFTER you file but BEFORE your case is closed, we can add it- but there are additional attorney and court costs. If you catch a debt you forgot before you file we will add it at no cost.

IMPORTANT ~ IMPORTANT ~ If the deed/title was recorded within 90 days of filing bankruptcy, or you purchased an item/property within 90 days of filing bankruptcy, it is INCREDIBLY IMPORTANT to bring this to our attention both on this form and verbally! You could lose your home/vehicle or other property if you forget!

IMPORTANT ~ IMPORTANT ~ If an address of a creditor is wrong the creditor is not subject to the automatic stay and possibly not subject to discharge. GET THE CORRECT ADDRESS THE FIRST TIME!!!!!!

List on the following pages all debts that you owe or that creditors claim that you owe

Cameron Law

I have read this bankruptcy worksheet completely and have contacted Cameron Law for an explanation of any questions not understood. I fully understand every question in this worksheet, every question emailed or mailed to me that applies to me.

I have answered each and every question clearly, completely, and truthfully. If the question was not applicable, I have indicated such by writing "N/A" or scratching through/across it.

I have listed in this document, to the best of my knowledge, all my debts, all judgments, and all my assets to include both physical and financial – even those not specifically asked for in this worksheet. If it comes to my attention that I have not included everything, or have made an error, I will notify Cameron Law immediately.

I understand that I am responsible for the appraisal of my belongings, both physical and financial, in accordance to the directives in this worksheet. I understand that if they are purposely undervalued or not listed, the discovery is inevitable and I could be prosecuted for fraud and/or barred from bankruptcy. I further understand that Attorney-client privilege does NOT extend to fraud and my attorney MUST report it if I refuse.

I understand that if questions are left unanswered or not answered completely it could be detrimental to my case.

I understand that if questions are left unanswered or not answered completely it will slow down the process of filing my petition and may result in additional pre-petition charges.

I understand that many questions are time-sensitive, and if I take too long answering questions, I may be re-asked the same time-sensitive questions.

I understand that every statement here also applies to future questions asked by Cameron Law through the duration of my bankruptcy.

I further authorize the destruction of any and all records held by Cameron Law after a period of three years from my bankruptcy discharge date or from my last official case communication with Cameron Law.

STATEMENT OF INFORMATION ON REAFFIRMATION REQUIRED BY 11 U.S.C. §341

INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to the Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1994, the Office of the United States Trustee, United States Department of Justice, has prepared this information sheet to help you understand some of the possible consequences of filing a bankruptcy petition under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. This information is intended to make you aware of...

- (1) the potential consequences of seeking a discharge in bankruptcy, including the effects on credit history;
- (2) the effect of receiving a discharge of debts
- (3) the effect of reaffirming a debt; and
- (4) your ability to file a petition under a different chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

There are many other provisions of the Bankruptcy Code that may affect your situation. This information sheet contains only general principles of law and is not substitute for legal advice. If you have questions or need further information as to how the bankruptcy laws apply to your specific case, you should consult with your lawyer

WHAT IS A DISCHARGE?

The filing of a chapter 7 petition is designed to result in a discharge of most of the debts you listed on your bankruptcy schedules. A discharge is a court order that says you do not have to repay your debts, but there are a number of exceptions. Debts which may not be discharged in your chapter 7 case include, for example, most taxes, child support, alimony, and student loans; court-ordered fines and restitution; debts obtained through fraud or deception; and personal injury debts caused by driving while intoxicated or taking drugs. Your discharge may be denied entirely if you, for example, destroy or conceal property; destroy, conceal or falsify records; or make a false oath. Creditors cannot ask you to pay any debts which have been discharged. You can only receive a chapter 7 discharge once every six (6) years.

POTENTIAL EFFECTS OF A DISCHARGE?

The fact that you filed bankruptcy can appear on your credit report for as long as 10 years. Thus, filing a bankruptcy petition may affect your ability to obtain credit in the future. Also, you may not be excused from repaying any debts that were not listed on your bankruptcy schedules or that you incurred after you filed for bankruptcy.

WHAT ARE THE EFFECTS OF REAFFIRMING A DEBT?

After you file your petition, a creditor may ask you to reaffirm a certain debt or you may seek to do so on your own. Reaffirming a debt means that you sign and file with the court a legally enforceable document, which states that you promise to repay all or a portion of the debt that may otherwise have been discharged in your bankruptcy case. Reaffirmation agreements must generally be filed with the court within 60 days after the first meeting of creditors.

Reaffirmation agreements are strictly voluntary — they are not required by the Bankruptcy Code or other state or federal law. You can voluntarily repay any debt instead of signing a reaffirmation agreement, but there may be valid reasons for wanting to reaffirm a particular debt. Reaffirmation agreements must not impose an undue burden on you or your dependents and must be in your best interest. If you decide to sign a reaffirmation agreement, you may cancel it at any time before the court issues your discharge order or within sixty (60) days after the reaffirmation agreement was filed with the court, whichever is later. If you reaffirm a debt and fail to make the payments required in the reaffirmation agreement, the creditor can take action against you to recover any property that was given as security for the loan and you may remain personally liable for any remaining debt.

OTHER BANKRUPTCY OPTIONS

You have a choice in deciding what chapter of the Bankruptcy Code will best suit your needs. Even if you have already filed for relief under Chapter 7, you may be eligible to convert your case to a different chapter.

Chapter 7 is the liquidation chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. Under chapter 7, a trustee is appointed to collect and sell, if economically feasible, all property you own that is not exempt from these actions.

Chapter 11 is the reorganization chapter most commonly used by businesses, but it is also available to individuals. Creditors vote on whether to accept or reject a plan, which also must be approved by the court. While the Debtor normally remains in control of the assets, the court can order the appointment of a trustee to take possession and control of the business.

Chapter 12 offers bankruptcy relief to those who qualify as family farmers. Family farmers must propose a plan to repay their creditors over a three-to-five year period and it must be approved by the court. Plan payments are made through a chapter 12 trustee, who also monitors the Debtor's farming operations during the pendency of the plan.

Finally, chapter 13 generally permits individuals to keep their property by repaying creditors out of their future income. Each chapter 13 Debtor writes a plan which must be approved by the bankruptcy court. The Debtor must pay the chapter 13 trustee the amounts set forth in their plan. Debtors receive a discharge after they complete their chapter 13 repayment plan. Chapter 13 is only available to individuals with regular income whose debts do not exceed $1,000,000 ($250,000 in unsecured debts and $750,000 in secured debts).

COMPLETE ONLY IF YOUR NAME IS ON ANY REAL ESTATE DEED.

I, (name & SSN) _____ and (spouse's name & SSN -if applicable) _____ have gone to a courthouse and looked up any judgments against me and my spouse (if applicable) for each and every county in which I (we, if married & filing jointly) own real property, or I'm purchasing real property,

We have a total of _____ judgments against us. Complete copies of all are stapled to this document. Included is the complete copy of all judgment information including the Case, Book and Page numbers, or if not available, the Case and Abstract numbers.

I (we, if married & filing jointly) will also notify Sheree Cameron, Esq. of Cameron Law, immediately in writing, if any judgment is filed against my spouse or me after the signing of this document, but before the discharge of the bankruptcy. A copy of the judgment will immediately be forwarded to Sheree Cameron, Esq.

I (we, if married & filing jointly) understand that no judgment may be voided unless Sheree Cameron, Esq. of Cameron Law is notified in writing BEFORE FILING BANKRUPTCY; and I understand that any judgment not voided survives the bankruptcy. Furthermore, I (we, if married & filing jointly) also understand that not all judgments are voidable, and some judgments may survive bankruptcy no matter what my attorney does.
